KISSING MEANS OF PASSING GERMS

Health Officer Foulks Says He Doesn't Expect Practice Will be Reduced

GERMS IN DROPLETS

Advocates Wrapping All Bread at Bakery Where Made—Other Timely Questions Answered.

Ques.—"In washing the hands with soap and water, does the soap kill any germs that may be on the hands?

Ans.—No. Soap commonly used for domestic purposes has no germicidal power, whatever. Its action dissolves the oil or grease, and this helps the water to cleanse the skin. Of course during the process of washing, many germs are removed from the hands, but not all. Those that are washed off are in no way injured by the process. That is the reason why the waste water from a wash stand or bath tub is almost as dangerous as human excretions. In the prevention of disease it is just as important to dispose of such wash water in a sanitary manner, as it is the drainage from the toilet. The waste water from the laundry is full of bacteria, and unless it is brought to the boiling point—that is 212 degrees F—any typhoid, diphtheria or other pathogenic germs are still active and able to cause disease.

Ques.—"Is it true that the death rate is higher in this Country now than it was 5 or more years ago?"

Ans.—No. I challange any person to produce reliable statistics to support such a statement. The mortality from yellow fever, typhoid, cholera, smallpox, diphtheria and malaria, 50 or 75 years ago, was, taken as a whole, simply appalling! The mortality from typhoid fever, taking the seven years from 1911 to 1917, has been reduced more than 40 per cent, while the general death rate for all ages from one to 54 years, has been reduced from to 20 per cent.

Ques.—"Can you judge the quality of the water from a well, spring or city supply from its appearance and taste?"

Ans. No, you cannot. The water from a well, spring or other supply may be as clear as crystal and tasteless, yet badly infected with typhoid germs. And on the other hand, a water may be more or less turbid an even have a distinctly unpleasant taste, yet free from contamination and absolutely safe to drink. The only way to tell a safe water, is to have it tested in an up-to-date labortory.

Ques.—"Can a person catch a disease by inhaling the breath of a sick person?"

Ans. No. The breath alone does not carry the germs of disease, but in coughing, sneezing and often in talking, a fine spray is ejected and these minute droplets can carry the germs, which if inhaled may produce disease. Various diseases such as influenza, tuberculosis, pneumonia, diphtheria and even the so called common "colds" are usually transmitted in this way, as the germs are present in the secretions of the mouth, nose or throat of a person suffering from such diseases.

I might also state that kissing is the most deadly means I know of in passing disease germs from one person to another, but I do not for a moment expect this statement to reduce this dilightful practice the thousandth part of one per cent!

Ques.—"Some bakers wrap their bread in wax paper. Is this a good thing and if so, why don't they all do it?"

Ans.—All bread should be wrapped at the bakery and the time will come when a general law wil lrequire it to be done. The reason is obvious. The crust of an unwrapped loaf of bread comes into direct cntact with many hands before it reaches the consumer, and these hands are not at all times verly clean. Remember, a lot of germs have been left on the crust before it reaches your groceny store. Then they take it in hand and stack it on the shelf or in a show case, leaving a few more germs upon it. Now you cone in fr a loaf. The clerk grabs one adds a few more germs—plunks it down on the counter like an old brick, tears off a section of paper from the roll, grabs the much abused batch of germs, then wraps it up and hands it over to you with its choice collection of dust and microscopic flora and fauna collected during its long and devious line of march from the bakery. Now don't you think all bakers' bread should be wrapped?

NON-PARTISAN HEAD GIVEN PRISON TERM

Jackson, Minn., Sept. 17.—A. C. Townley, president of the National Non-partisan League, and Joseph Gilbert, former organization manager were sentenced to three months in the Jackson county jail here yesterday by Judge E. C. Dean, without alternative of fine. Townley and Gilbert were convicted here July 12 on a charge of conspiracy to teach disloyalty.

Judge Dean granted a stay of sentence of sixty days at the request of the attorney for the defense on their original bail. In passing sentence, Judge Dean assailed Townley and the Non-partisan League, and declared "any organization built on falsehood will not long endure."

DENIES BULLITT TALE

U. S. Peace Delegation in Favor of Covenant And Treaty

Washington, Sept. 17.—Members of the American Peace delegation in Paris yesterday issued a statement endorsing without qualification the treaty of peace with Germany and the league of nations covenant. This, they explained, was in repudiation of the testimony of William C. Bullitt before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee:

"My testimony as it appears in the official Record is correct in every detail," said Mr Bullitt yesterday, adding that the only denials of his testimony he had seen as coming from Philip Kerr, secretary to Lloyd George, were of reports printed in Paris newspapers and not of the official testimony.

Long reproductions from this testimony are being printed in the London papers opposed to Lloyd George. Bullitt's statement that the premier sidestepped the Prussian crisis because he feared Lord North cliffe and Winston Churchill had been seized upon as showing Lloyd George is a political opportunist.

HEARING OF RATE CASE MAY GO OVER

Attorney C. H. Smith Will Ask Commerce Commission for Postponement

FRIDAY IS DATE SET

Counsel Desires More Time in Which to Prepare Case Against W.-Va., Ry. Co., For Commuters.

The Mount Vernon Commuters' Association will ask for a postponement of the hearing in the rate case of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company which is scheduled to be called Friday morning before the Interstate Commerce Commission according to Attorney Charles Henry Smith selected by the commuters as their representative at the hearing.

Attorney Smith stated today that only having been recently employed in the case he desires to have more time to consider it in order to be able to properly present it before the commission.

The question of increased rates on this road has aroused the commuters and it is expected that vigorous r test will be presented against putting into operation the proposed new rates.

The price charged at the present time for a round trip to Washington is twenty-five cents and the company asks to be permitted to increase this to forty cents and to increase the price of a single trip from fifteen to twenty five cents. Corresponding increases also are asked for other points.

DEATH LIST OF STORM GROWING

29 Bodies Recovered At Corpus Christi—100 Still Missing

BIRTHS DURING BLOW

Between 75 and 100 Persons Believed to Have Been Killed in Corpus Christi—News is Meagre.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 17.—Twenty-nine bodies of victims of Sunday's hurricane had been recovered here by mid-afternoon yesterday and the rescue work continued with indications that the list of the dead would continue to grow as the debris was removed. News from Port Arkansas, Rockport and other points in this section was still lacking.

The death toll in Sunday's storm will reach between 75 and 100 in Corpus Christi and surrounding towns along the coast, according to an estimate yesterday by Dr. W. E. Wills, city health physician. At daybreak the last of the victims in Corpus Christi, which up to that hour had been estimated from 15 to 25, began to mount as rescuing parties working in wreckage recovered additional bodies. At the same time the list of missing was gradually being reduced as reports began to come in that scores of persons had been rescued across Nueces Bay, where they had floated on what remained of their wrecked homes and other debris or had been driven inland by the hurricane.

Seven additional bodies were brought to the morgue at an early hour, while at noon at least 100 persons still were unaccounted for.

It is impossible yet even to approximate the death list and it may be several days before all the missing are accounted for and the number of victims known.

Three women who sought refuge from the storm in the Federal building Sunday night became mothers while the hurricane was at its height. They were attended by physicians who were among the hundred or so people who sought safety there.

SEES SLUMP IN MEAT PRICES

Institute of Packers Says Demand Has Fallen Off

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 17.—Conditions of the food markets of the world indicate to the Institute of American Meat Packers, in session here, that the demand for beef from America for meeting shortage in Europe has about ceased, and that the demand for pork is slackening, while in the United States the agitation against the packers has caused a slump in the consumption.

The effect has been to break the price of cattle and the reduction in the prices for cattle to the farmers, while increased production is demanded in order to bring the scale of prices to a lower level.

MOORE IS WINNER

Defeats Patterson in Race for Mayor of Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Representative J. Hampton Moore was chosen Republican candidate for mayor of Philadelphia by a majority of from 1,000 to 1,500 votes over Judge John M. Patterson, yesterday in the closest municipal election ever held in Philadelphia. At one o'clock this morning, with practically all the ballots counted, Representative Moore was leading his opponent on the official count.

Representative Moore claims he was chosen by a majority of 6,000, while Judge Patterson asserts the final tally will show his election by 2,500 ballots.

The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Harris & Shafer Co., will be held at the office of Mr. Gardner L. Boothe, Alexandria National Bank Building, Alexandria, Virginia, on Thursday, September 25, 1919, at 2:30 p. m.

By order of the President.

PEACE TREATY IN THE SENATE

Formal Reading Begun Late Yesterday Afternoon

LODGE IS SNAPPISH

Resents Hitchcock's Demand—Democrats Win Point and Reading of Covenant Progresses.

Formal reading of the German peace treaty for amendment was begun late yesterday in the Senate after a sharp parliamentary wrangle and demand by Democrats for an avowal from Republican Leader Lodge that the pact be keut continuously before the body.

It had not been the intention of opponents of the treaty to take it up this week, as was indicated by a motion of Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, to consider other legislation after a four-hour discussion.

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, leader of the Administration forces, insisting the treaty was emergency business and pointing out not one line of the document had been read, drew fire from Senator Lodge by asking if in all good faith it was his purpose to expedite consideration.

"My good faith and what I intend to do is my business," Senator Lodge replied, with feeling, and the crowd in the galleries leaned forward expecting the first real fight over the treaty. Senator Hitchcock thereupon again asked Senator Lodge if he intended to carry out his promise and keep the treaty before the Senate.

Senator Lodge, who had been walking back and forth in the chamber, halted quickly when the question was asked.

"I certainly do, and in my own way, without advice from the Senator from Nebraska," he declared.

The answer was hurled by the Senator with so much emphasis and feeling that the galleries broke into applause, which led the discussion to the conduct of the crowds coming out daily to hear it.

President Pro Tempore Cummins declared that while visitors had been permitted to applaud at the end of an address in violation of the standing rules of the Senate they would not be permitted to show partisan feeling by noisy demonstrations.

Senator Hitchcock said the galleries generally were not aware of the rule until it had been broken, and Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, insisted the rule ought to be abolished so that visitors could give epression to their feelings.

The Democrats asked for the ayes and the nays on the Smoot motion to take up other business and this was met from the Republican side by the claim that there was no quorum. Before the count was announced Senator Smoot withdrew his motion and reading of the treaty was begun.

TWO MEN KILLED IN FIGHT

Three Others Seriously Wounded in Duel Between Rival

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Two men were shot and killed and three others were seriously wounded in a revolver duel in a restaurant on Christian street, above Eighth, early yesterday morning. The shooting is believed by the police to have been the result of a "Black Hand" feud, which breaks out at intervals in the southern section of the city between gangs from New York and this city.

The dead are Giovanni Cancello, 58 years old, the proprietor of the restaurant, and an unidentified man, about 30 years old.

ATTENTION A. L. I.

Members of Company G, 1st Virginia Infantry (Alexandria Light Infantry) who left with that organization for Camp McClellan, Ala., on September 24th, 1917, are requested to meet at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Thursday, September 18th, 1919, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of re-organizing the Alexandria Light Infantry.

221-3p. Louis N. Duffey.

$5,000 FOR JEWISH RELIEF SOUGHT HERE

Local Organization Effected With Appointment of Officers

DRIVE OCTOBER 14-24

Headquarters of Local Committee at Chamber of Commerce—Seek Total of $35,000,000 In U. S.

The Jewish Relief Campaign in this city will begin October 14 and end October 24. It is expected that the sum of $5,000 will be raised for the work in Alexandria.

An organization has been effected with the apointment of these officers: L. Ruben, chairman; B. Weil, vice chairman; Carroll Pierce, treasurer and J. T. Preston, secretary.

Headquarters will be in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. It is the purpose of the Jews of America to raise a total of $35,000,000 to carry the relief work through another year.

A relief train of 31 cars crowded to the last inch of space, has just completed a record trip across the vast stretches of Siberia, carrying aid to Jewish sufferers from the war, in all the towns between Valdivostok and Omsk, according to a report just received by Moe Levy of Norfolk, Va., chairman of the Virginia state drive of the national Jewish war relief campaign.

The train was in charge of Samuel Mason, head of the Jewish relief work in Siberia. It was loaded with American Red Cross supplies, cases of clothing sent by Jewish relief agencies in America and blankets bought in Japan with American Jewish relief funds. Allotments of the suplies were unloaded at Harbih, Buchedo, Irkutsk, Taiga and Omsk.

This shipment represents a part of the $8,000,000 worth of suplies which have been sent aboard by Jewish relief agencies since the beginning of the war.

TREASURY DEFICIT BIG

Representative Good Says $3,000,000,000 More is Needed

Washington, Sept. 17.—A deficit of more than $3,000,000,000 by July 1, 1920, is facing the Treasury, even should Congress not appropriate "another penny" before that date, Chairman Good of the Appropriation Committee, informed the House yesterday, warning it that greater economy than ever ehibited before" must be practiced by Government departments.

Already the Government is committed to ependitures for the year ending net June 30 of $10,831,201,585, while the total revenues are estimated at $7,239,028,240.

"The price of living may be reduced somewhat by a vigorous enforcement of laws," said Mr. Good, "but no real benefit will be felt until the cost of production is reduced, and it may be necessary to reduce very materially our circulating medium. If the nation is to receive relief from present unrest and from high prices for the necessaries of life, our people must practice the strictest economy. The Government, through its eecutive departments, should lead in this crusade."

COUNTY TEACHERS GIVEN RECEPTION MONDAY NIGHT

The Parents-Teachers' Association of Jefferson district, Alexandria county, Monday night tendered a reception to the public school teachers, the school trustees and superintendent, Fletcher Kemp at the school house. The affair was largely attended. A musical and literary program was given and afterward refreshments were served.

The George Mason High School, formerly the home of Paul Kester, is now used for school purposes. The women teachers have taken quarters in this building.

GRASSHOPPER STOP CARS

Juliustown, N. J., Sept. 16.—According to reports of reliable citizens, automobilists were stalled near here Sunday by swarms of grasshoppers which collected in the roads.

FAIRFAX FAIR

Will be Held October 1-3 Welcome Home For Soldiers

Fairfax, Va., Sept. 17.—Plans for the annual fair are completed. The fair will take place on the 1st, 2nd and 3d of October. The first day will be devoted to a celebration in honor of the Fairfax county soldiers in the war with Germany. The feature of the second day will be th eexhibit of saddle horses, and the third day the school children of the county will parade on the fairgrounds. The premium list if off the press, and besides the regular prizes offered by the fair association there are numerous special premiums offered by persons interested in the work.

A band will be in attendance every day, and on the date of the welcome home celebration addresses will be made to the soldiers by Representative R. Walton Moore and F. L. Ballanger, chairman of the board of supervisors. The ranking officer of the local soldiers will respond to these addresses. Besides a short drill these will be no other formal functions, and the day will be given over to entertaining the soldiers.

VANADA SAILS

Big Freighter off for New York—Will Sail With Cargo for Austria September 25.

The 9,400 ton steel freighter Vanada, built by the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, sailed from that company's dock last night. The big ship pulled anchor promptly at 7:10 o'clock.

She is in command of Capt. W. S. Mitchell.

The Vanada is enroute to New York. She will load general cargo in that city and for Austria.

The boat will sail for Austria according to present plans, September 25.

AMERICAN GIRL HIS VICTIM

Naples, Sept. 17.—The arrest by the police here of a man named Luxemberg, 30 years old, has developed an alleged murder case in which an American girl was the victim, according to the authorities.

The police say the prisoner has confessed that in 1919 he eloped with a Miss Ellis, an American girl then living in Geneva, and that shortly afterwards he murdered her

CITY DEPOPULATED THIS AFTERNOON

General Outpouring of Citizens to See Parade in Washington

BUSINESS SUSPENDED

All Outgoing Trains Carried Capacity Crowds to Witness Big Military Pageant.

Practically all business came to a standstill here at noon today. Stores and offices suspended operations at that hour and some even earlier. The city postoffice closed for the day at 10 o'clock.

Each outgoing train beginning at about 10 o'clock carried capacity crowds and hundreds went over the road in automobiles.

By noon the city was almost deserted and practically all lines of business had been suspended in that hour.

Alexandria took a holiday to witness the big parade in honor of Gen. Pershing and his the heroic First Division.

Hundreds carried flags to wave a salute to the heroes.

During the forenoon hundred visitors passed through this city enroote to Mount Vernon.

NOTICE

HAPPENINGS ABOUT CITY TOLD IN BRIEF

The Willard W. C. T. U., will meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow night with Mrs. Ludwig, North Braddock.

A large delegation of Odd Fellows from this city are in Baltimore today to take part in the centennial parade of the Odd Fellows in that city.

The last community sing of the season will be given tomorrow night in Christ Church yard. Music will be furnished by the Old Dominion Band.

Funeral services for Thomas G. Trenary, who died yesterday, will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at his late residence, 229 South Pitt street.

The Fairfax Herald, edited by Will F. Carne, has increased its size from four to six pages. Here's best wishes for more success to this growing weekly.

The public schools of this city were closed today as were also the private schools in order to give the pupils an opportunity to attend the parade in Washington.

In the presence of a large crowd the cornerstone of the new public school building for colored children was laid yesterday afternoon. The afair was under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

Mrs. Pauline Walters, formerly of this city, but now of Washington, who was injured in an automobile accident last Sunday, is still at the Emergency Hospital, Waskington. Her husband, L. A. Walters and little son Robert, who were also painfully injured, are still suffering from their injuries.

Horace H. Allen, forty years old, a native of this city, died yesterday at the Dorchester Apartment, Twelfth and Maryland Avenue, south west, Washington. The deceased was a bookkeeper by occupation, and for many years was employed in this city in that capacity. The body was brought here and taken to Wheatley's mortuary chapel and prepared for burial.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere in this paper a called meeting of the members of Company G, First Virginia Infantry, better known as the Alexandria Light Infantry, who left with that organization for Camp McClellan, Ala., September 24, 1917, will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of discussing the advisability of reorganizing. A call for the meeting has been issued by Capt. Louis N. Dufey.

LOOK FOR OIL IN FAIRFAX

Borings to be Made Within Next Thirty Days

There are good prospects for finding oil, gas and coal in western section of Fairfax county, according to J. C. Buchanan, a man who has spent his life in the gas and oil fields of the west. Mr. Buchanan has been in the Centerville-Clifton neighborhood for several weeks looking the ground over. It is intended to make test borings within the next thirty days. Mr. Buchanan has the backing of men of means, and has purchased, through T. M. Hamilton, John T. De Bell and R. R. Buckley, options on between 6,000 and 7,000 acres of land. Forty leases are in the clerk's office at Fairfax for record. These leases cover farms in Centerville district and in the Centerville-Clifton neighborhood to within a mile of Fairfax. The result of the borings is awaited with intense interest by the people of the district.

THIRD SHIP ON THE OCEAN

The Vanada, the third steel steam ship launched this year at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation at Alexandria, is now upon the deep plowing her way to New York, where she will be loaded for an Austrian port.

The Vanada left this port Saturday afternoon for a trial trip. During her shore run it was found that everything worked satisfactorily, and upon her return she was made ready for her virgin voyage, which began yesterday afternoon.

A few weeks ago four completed steamships were moored at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation. There is at present but one—the Chancock—which will soon be ready for sea.

Sometime next month another ship of the same pattern—the City of St. Joseph—will be committed to her element. This will be the fifth product of the Alexandria yard.

The launching of the first ship—the Gunston Hall—last February was the occasion of a general utrn out of Alexandrians. Thousands of people from Washington, and the surrounding country mingled with our people on that occasion. Many visitors also came from places far distant from the capital, and among the hundreds of automobiles streamers showed that some came from far-away states. While many persons gathered at first in the yard and at vantage points on adjoining hills on the occasion of the first launching, the frequency with which ships have recently left their cribs for the Potomac have made such procedures common.

Our shipbuilding plant forms an important part of the business pulse of Alexandria. It is an animating spectacle to be nearby at five o'clock in the afternoon, when the siren sounds announcing that the day's work is over. Between 2,500 and 3,000 men stampede for the checking booths, and a few minutes later a great mass of humanity pour out of the gates. "St. Mary's" station is the objective of numbers who in less time than it takes to tell it, densely pack two electric railway trains for Washington or stations between this city and the capital. The great mass, however, wend their way to Fairfax street, up which they proceed toward their respective homes. Probably one hundred automobiles, many motorcycles, bicycles wagons and carriages are utilized by the workmen in going to and returning from work. The rush over Fairfax street is suggestive of an exciting chariot race.

THE DREADED "FLU."

The terrible epidemic known as "Flu" which cut down so many people in Alexandria and vicinity about this time last year, and which moved slowly but surely over the entire American ontinent, has not, so far, returned notwithstanding predictions. Now is there anything at present to indicate that its reappearance is inevitable.

Every precaution, however, should be resorted to, and the following suggestions, made last year while the terrible pestilence was in evidence, are in order now:

1. The person who coughs or sneezes discharges a spray more deadly than bullets or poison gas, unless the mouth and nose are covered by a handkerchief. Spitting in public places and dry sweeping are dangerous and unlawful.

2. Glasses and eating utensils which have been used in restaurants and other public places, or even by members of your family, must be sterilized by washing in boiling water to destroy the germs sticking to them. To avoid infection, your lips should not touch the mouthpiece of a public telephone.

3. The waiter whose fingers handle glasses or eating utensils soiled by use, should not touch your bread, the edge of your glass, cup plate or knife, or the bowl of your spoon.

4. The hands of a person who has a running nose, a "cold in the head" or "Flu" are smeared with germs; therefore, if you must shake his hand or handle any article he has touched, avoid touching your lips, nose or eyes, until you have carefully washed your hands. Never eat without first washing your hands.

5. Remmebr that the germs of "Flu" and pneumonia are discharged from the mouth and nose, not only of one whom you recognize as being sick, but often by a person who seems to be healthy.

6. To avoid infecting your child, do not kiss it near its mouth; it is unsafe to kiss you child before washing your face.

7. Do not visit one who has "Flu" or pneumonia. The sick person should have a separate room and eating utensils.

8. Those who have "Colds" or "Flu" risk their lives and the lives of others by going to work or to school.

9. Keep yourself fit by avoiding overwork and over eating, worry, fatigue, lack of sleep and unventilated rooms in the home, shop, factory or place of amusement.

10. Make sure that all cases of "Flu" with which you come in contact are reported to the department of health; in this way we can better protect you by enforcing quarantine.

Golden Rule: Protect others by observing these health rules, just as you would have others protect you.

DON'T LET THE "FLU" GET YOU THIS FALL

You Can Almost Surely Avoid That Dread Disease by Taking Chasco-Vin, a Most Palatable Body-Building Tonic

The terrible harvest reaped by the "flu" a year ago will last long in our memory. No one would have it repeated at any cost hence all should take every precaution in time.

During the last epidemic thousands were safeguarded by taking Chasco-Vin, a body building tonic that does build.

It is the toning up of the system that counts in keeping the "Flu" away.

Those who are weak, nervous and run-down specially need Chasco-Vin.

In conjunction with Chasco-Vin we advise using a good antiseptic solution for the throat and nose and also that the bowels be kept regular.

Chasco-Vin is sold by Edgar Warfield, jr., King and Pitt Streets.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 3 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 138 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such forms or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 184 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year, a rate of levy, to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908.

GIRL SWIMS HELL GATE

Helen Wainwright Covers 3 Miles in 59 Minutes, Using Crawl Stroke

New York, Sept. 17.—Helen Wainwright, 13, of Elmhurst, L. I., who has won many aquatic honors in fancy diving and swimming contests dropped into the East River just above the most vicious whirl of the Hell Gate waters Sunday battled 15 minutes through that vortex and kept right on down the river. She was picked up off Sixty-third street just 59 minutes after she started. She had covered a distance of three miles.

After getting through the Hell Gate channel the girl had little trouble. The tide was with her and carried her rapidly along. She used the crawl stroke the whole way and at times outdistanced the boat that accompanied her. There was considerable apprehension as the girl fought her way through Hell Gate when it was seen that she was unable to make any headway. Finally she forced herself into a calmer channel and set into the place which she kept up till she came opposite Sixty-third street.

Miss Wainwright is a member of the Women's Swimming Association and on August 16 took a second second prize in a 50 yard race at Manhattan Beach. The last previous attempt to swim Hell Gate made by a woman was September 13, 1911. Miss Adeline Trapp, 20, a Brooklyn school teacher, swam from North Beach through Hell Gate, past the Battery to Staten Island, making the trip in five hours.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Alexandria people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. M. E. Williams, 523 Oronoco Street, Alexandria, says: "I was so bad off with pains in my back I was about all worn out. I would put my hands on my back trying to relieve the pain through my kidneys. When I bent over I could hardly straighten again. This weakened me very much and made me so nervous I could hardly stand the least noise. Dizziness affected me when I bent over and everything would turn black. My kidneys didn't act at all right. I tried different things such as putting turpentine on the small of my back until it would blister. Nothing did me any good until I started using Doan's idney Pills. I kept getting better right along and was soon cured."

Mabel McKinley—Niece of the Late President of the United States—Takes Nuxated Iron for Health and Strength

And Says She Regards It as The Ideal Tonic For All Weak, Run-Down Nervous Women

Dr. George H. Baker, Formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, Explains Why Iron Is One of the GREATEST OF ALL STRENGTH BUILDERS

Says: He has found nothing in his experience so effective for helping to make strong, healthy, red-blooded women as Nuxated Iron.

Miss McKinley has a voice of unusual quality and it was following her work singing for the soldiers that she became weakened and run-down and had recourse to Nuxated Iron. Once more in superb physical condition, Miss McKinley says she is convinced that Nuxated Iron has no equal as a Strength, Health and Blood-Builder.

Every woman who wishes to possess health, strength and beauty, should carefully read the statement of Miss McKinley, who, after her personal use of Nuxated Iron tells in her words she obtained.

Miss McKinley says: "While I had often heard of Nuxated Iron I must admit that prior to using it myself I had no idea of its remarkable value for building up the health and strength.

"Following the strain imposed by some of the most exacting work during the soldiers in the various camps and hospitals, together with my social engagements and charitable duties, I found myself in such a nervous, run-down state that I feared a complete collapse.

"It seemed utterly impossible for me to drop everything and go away for a complete rest, but I realized that as my condition was serious I must either do this or find something that would actually rebuild my wasting strength and enable me to continue my activities.

"I had always been prejudiced against tonic preparations which, for the most part, I found only acted as a temporary stimulant and usually left one worse off than ever. However, when my own family physician insistently recommended that I give a fair trial to Nuxated Iron, I consented to begin its use, with a result that after a few days the weakness and exhaustion from which I suffered began to be replaced by a feeling of renewed strength and vitality. In less than three weeks' time my whole system was tingling with energy and power and I was overjoyed to find that I was once more in superb physical condition.

"Nuxated Iron has accomplished so much for me that I regard it as the ideal tonic for all weak, run-down women. As a strength, health and blood-builder, I am convinced Nuxated Iron has no equal."

In commenting on Miss McKinley's statement regarding the efficacy of Nuxated Iron, Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, says: "It is my opinion that in practically nine times out of ten, unstrung nerves and failing strength and vitality are due to deficiency of iron in the blood. Many a woman who is run-down, nervous and who quickly tires out, suffers from iron deficiency and does not know it. I am convinced that there are thousands of such women who, simply by taking Nuxated Iron, might readily build up their red-blood corpuscles, increase their physical energy and get themselves back to vibrant and vigorous health. By enriching the blood and increasing its oxygen carrying power, Nuxated Iron will often transform the flabby flesh, toneless tissues, and pallid cheeks of nervous, run-down women into a glow of health, and make them look younger within a surprisingly short time."

Among other physicians asked for an opinion was Dr. George H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital, New Jersey, who says: "What women need to put roses in their cheeks and the springtime of life into their step is not cosmetics or stimulating drugs but plenty of rich, pure blood. Without it no woman can do credit to herself or to her work. Iron is one of the greatest of all strength and blood-builders, and I have found nothing in my experience so effective for helping to make strong, healthy, red-blooded women as Nuxated Iron."

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron which is recommended above by physicians is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or else will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by all good druggists.

The Council Manager Plan

The Council Manager Plan is a form of city government inaugurated in the State of Virginia and adopted by Norfolk, Suffolk, Petersburg, Roanoke, Bristol and Fredericksburg, because it has been demonstrated that it better enables cities to intelligently, efficiently and economically conduct the business.

A council of five is provided which acts as a Board of Directors to conduct business, just as a Board of Directors assumes the responsibility for private business. The council will elect a city manager, whose position is relative to that of manager of a successful business. He is given authority and is held responsible for results.

THE COUNCIL TO HAVE FIVE MEMBERS. The five men to serve as a council under the proposed plan will be elected by the people at large. There is no chance of factional control, because of the number of candidates of five receiving the highest number of votes will be declared elected. There is not any ward division because this body represents the whole people.

THE CITY MANAGER. The city manager is to be the chief executive officer of the city; his merit and qualifications are to be decided by the council and he is subject to removal by them if he does not prove efficient. He is to prepare an annual budget, subject to the approval of the council. He will plan and direct all city work and improvements; will have supervision over all city employees. He is responsible to the council of five for his acts and those of his subordinates.

CITY FINANCES. The council manager plan will stabilize the handling of the city's finances, looking first—as you do in your business—to the actual and possible development of finances, and, second, to a budget plan of disbursement. Cities are not built for the present, but for the future, and in expending the revenues of a city careful attention should and must be paid to future growth. The provision of the Sinking Fund to properly care for the city's debt is provided for in State Law.

TEST OF THE COUNCIL MANAGER PLAN. The present city government is inefficient, not because of the men, but the plan. It is old, faulty and unsuited to meet present needs. While it is inconceivable that the proposed plan should make its first failure in this City, should it fail there is nothing in the State Law to forbid a return to the present form. The economists and efficiency men are paid large sums of money to furnish a better plan of organization and government for private and public business enterprises, and acting upon the results of investigation the citizens petitioning the court has offered the council manager plan to you, Mr. Voter, as an opportunity to say whether you want the old conditions to remain, or whether you want your city to measure up to its full responsibilities brought upon it by new enterprises and increased population.

ELECTON NOTICE

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court house of said city on Wednesday, July 9th, 1919. Present. Hon. Samuel G. Brent, Judge.

In the matter of the petition of electors for a change in the form of government for the city of Alexandria, Virginia, under the act of the General Assembly, approved March 20, 1916.

And this day again came the petitioners and again presented their petitions prepared and executed in due form of law, of electors of the City of Alexandria, equal in number to at least ten per cent. of those qualified to vote at the last preceding general election, at which a mayor or council was elected, and specifying in said petitions the particular form of government permitted under an act of the General Assembly approved March 20, 1916, as amended, and which form they wish to adopt, including the number of councilmen, namely five, to be elected at large and to serve without compensation, and asking that an election be held, as provided in said act; and said petition being in all respects in conformity with the provisions and requirements of said act.

It is therefore ordered that E. E. Downham, Richard E. Sweeney, and C. A. Moore, or their successors in office comprising the Electoral board of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, be, and they are hereby directed to take such steps and prepare such means as may be necessary to submit to the qualified voters of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, at an election which said electoral board is hereby directed to hold on the 23rd day of September, 1919, for determination of the question of whether said proposed change in the form of government of the City of Alexandria, shall be adopted or not.

Said election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by law for the conduct of regular election, and by the regular election officers of said city.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, for at least thirty days prior to said election and said electoral board is further directed to give all due publicity to said election, that under the law they are required to give of regular elections.

And the Clerk of this Court is directed to transmit a copy of this order to each member of the electoral board.

ALIEN PRISONERS ESCAPE

Leave War Prison Through Tunnel. Four Captured

Salt Lake City, Sept. 17.—Seventeen enemy prisoners escaped from the war prison barracks at Fort Douglas near here early yesterday. Escape was made through a tunnel which had evidently taken months to construct.

According to Col. George L. Byram, commandant at the war prison, nearly all of the escaped prisoners had been interned because they were classed as "undesirable."

The tunnel through which the men made their escape extended for 80 feet beyond the wire enclosure of the compound and was dug six feet below the surface.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 16.—Four of the 17 alien prisoners who escaped from the prison barracks at Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City, were captured here yesterday.

HUSBAND IN CUSTODY

Bruise on Wife's Body Causes Arrest of Joseph S. Williams of Richmond.

Richmond, Sept. 17.—Joseph S. Williams, twenty-five, chauffeur, is under arrest charged as a suspect in the killing of his twenty-one year old wife, Daisy Louise, who died at 3 o'clock Monday morning at her home 307 West Grace street.

Williams is the chauffeur who drove the party of prohibition agents to Fisher's Hill last spring when Raymond Shackelford and Lawrence Hudson were shot to death as bootleggers by dry agents, four of whom now face trial on murder charges.

Arrest of Williams followed a gruelling examination by police oficers yesterday after it had been learned that Mrs. Williams had died from blood clot on the brain, which the police believe resulted from a blow struck by the husband last Friday night.

According to the authorities, Williams admitted striking his wife with his hand during an altercation. Friends testified that she acted curiously Saturday and Sunday, and, according to the witnesses, went into convulsions shortly after midnight yesterday. Williams stated, according to the police that he thought his wife had acute indigestion and called a physician. The woman died two hours later.

Preparations were being made to bury Mrs. Williams when Coroner J. M. Whitfield was summoned, and after an examination discovered that there were no signs of death by acute indigestion, but that the woman had died from a blood clot on the brain, or apoplexy. A bruise was discovered on Mrs. Williams' neck and the Coroner notified the Police Department.

Mrs. Williams leaves a four-year old son.

You Can't Cure Rheumatism With Liniments and Lotions

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?

Do not try to rub the pain away, for you never will succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain.

You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has no equal as a blood cleanser, scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.

By order of the Board of Directors
